

Appendix 2. GLFL fishing effort and catch in the Anchor Bay-St. Clair Flats area of Lake St. Clair, January 30-April 5, 1979. [Gillnet fishing effort in January was one 140-ft net set overnight at each visit to a station; in February-April, two 140-ft gillnets were set overnight at each visit to a station. Hardware cloth trap fishing effort was one trap set overnight at each visit to a station.]

GLFL fishing effort and catch in the Anchor Bay-St. Clair Flats area of Lake St. Clair, January 30-April 5, 1979. [Gillnet fishing effort in January was one 140-ft net set overnight at each visit to a station; in February-April, two 140-ft gillnets were set overnight at each visit to a station. Hardware cloth trap fishing effort was one trap set overnight at each visit to a station.]

Gillnet Collections:				Total
Date	Station	Species	Number	length (mm)	Weight (gm)
1/30	1	yellow perch	1	140	28
		emerald shiner	1	99	11
	2	gizzard shad	4	323-384	361-781
		trout-perch	1	106	11
		muskellunge	1	824	---*
	3	gizzard shad	1	199	75
		yellow perch	1	146	39
		emerald shiner	1	110	12
	4	gizzard shad	9	320-420	360-860
		yellow perch	4	148-152	40-45
		trout-perch	4	105-116	14-22
		emerald shiner	2	102-105	20
		longnose gar	1	520	280
	2/6	1	gizzard shad	16	320-470
northern pike			3	580-695	---*
yellow perch			5	108-155	10-35
emerald shiner			1	112	10
trout-perch			1	105	8
2		gizzard shad	13	328-431	395-957
		northern pike	3	550-685	1060- ---*
		yellow perch	1	140	25
		alewife	1	150	10
3		gizzard shad	5	376-422	653-885
		yellow perch	2	109-141	15-28
		emerald shiner	1	111	11
4		gizzard shad	33	331-434	400-1031
		yellow perch	2	140-160	35
	trout-perch	1	105	18
	emerald shiner	1	110	18

*Weight of some fish exceeded 1200 g capacity of our scale.